CORAL SPRINGS, Fla., Jan. 10, 2017 – USLAW NETWORK (USLAW) announces the 2017 schedules of events that includes two client conferences, practice group-targeted USLAW client exchanges, the Women's Connection, Winter Legal Forum, TELFA spring and fall meetings and others.

"We are excited to release the complete schedule of events for 2017," said Lew R. C. Bricker, USLAW Chair and partner of USLAW member firm SmithAmundsen LLC in Chicago. "The 2017 schedule offers for a variety of programming and coast-to-coast venues that will deliver multiple opportunities for members to network with current and potential clients in a variety of settings large and small throughout the year. And, the growing popularity of the client exchanges enable USLAW to showcase our members and their diverse capabilities in specific practice areas at these highly interactive events. Members can create content and programming or to serve as a panelist or moderator."

In addition to the events listed below, USLAW will once again host select networking events, receptions and dinners in conjunction with numerous industry-specific (i.e. DRI, ATA, TIDA, etc.) major events.

Program specific agendas and reservation details will be available in the near future and posted under the REGISTRATION tab of USLAW Connect. You must be logged in to view the brochure and registration materials. For more information about any of these events in the meantime, contact Roger Yaffe at 800-231-9110.
