USLAW NETWORK AND ALN FORM US/AFRICA AFFILIATION

CORAL SPRINGS, Florida (June 4, 2010) – USLAW NETWORK, Inc. a national organization of 64 independent firms covering 48 states and Mexico, and ALN Limited, an African based organization representing 10 firms in Eastern and Southern Africa, have formed a cooperative affiliation to better serve their member firms' clients.

The relationship between USLAW and ALN will enhance the ability of each organization to meet their mutual goals of quality, service and reach. The two organizations will promote their relationship through their various business development and communication efforts and will be invited to participate in each other's meeting and events.

"We believe that Africa will be a significant growth area for our member firms' clients into the future," stated Roger M. Yaffe, USLAW Executive Director. "By partnering with ALN, our firms and their clients will now have reliable access to some of the top rated law firms in their respective African jurisdictions."

"It is a logical step for our Group to start building closer overseas relationships with other law groups and firms. USLAW provides us with an immediate strong link with the American continent. Africa has moved up the list in terms of overseas investment particularly in the areas of natural resources, telecommunications and infrastructure and for that reason increased co-operation between Africa and USA in the services sector has become crucial," commented John Miles, Chairman of ALN.
