EXTENDED STATUTES OF LIMITATIONS DURING THIS TIME OF COVID-19

Arizona does not have extended statutes of limitations during COVID-19.

TEMPORARY RULES EXTENDING TIME LIMITS TO SERVE COMPLAINTS AND/OR SPECIAL RULES RELATING TO METHODS OF SERVICE

There have not been any temporary rules extending time limits to serve complaints.

Pursuant to Administrative Order No. 2020-055, from April 1, 2020, through April 30, 2020 documents may be served by email to the email address of the party or, if represented, counsel for the party being served, and such service is deemed completed upon electronic transmission. The serving party shall use the email address the receiving party has identified in the caption. This special rule relating to methods of service expired on April 30, 2020 and was not extended.

This Compendium outline contains a brief overview of certain laws concerning various litigation and legal topics. The compendium provides a simple synopsis of current law and is not intended to explore lengthy analysis of legal issues. This compendium is provided for general information and educational purposes only. It does not solicit, establish, or continue an attorney-client relationship with any attorney or law firm identified as an author, editor, or contributor. The contents should not be construed as legal advice or opinion. While every effort has been made to be accurate, the contents should not be relied upon in any specific factual situation. These materials are not intended to provide legal advice or to cover all laws or regulations that may be applicable to a specific factual situation. If you have matters or questions to be resolved for which legal advice may be indicated, you are encouraged to contact a lawyer authorized to practice law in the state for which you are investigating and/or seeking legal advice.
