ADDRESSING EMPLOYEE MENTAL HEALTH AMID THE CHALLENGES OF THE LAST TWO YEARS

Surveys show a major increase in the number of U.S. adults who report symptoms of stress, anxiety, depression and insomnia during the pandemic, compared with surveys before the pandemic. Some people have increased their use of alcohol or drugs. About 4 in 10 adults in the U.S. have reported anxiety or depressive disorder symptoms, which is an increase from January to June 2019, where the numbers were 1 in 10 adults. Mental health issues are manifesting in the workplace. This interactive session will engage all attendees in discussing the rise in mental health issues and ways to address those issues in the workplace.

THE GREAT RESIGNATION AND TURNOVER AVOIDANCE AND MANAGEMENT

As the economy has opened, adapted and evolved since the start of the pandemic, a significant number of employees are unwilling to return to the status quo that was established pre-pandemic. Many are examining their current positions and employers and deciding what they truly want out of their jobs. Statistics show that for some, they believe that their goals can only be met by finding a new employer. Experts predict a "turnover tsunami" and a very tight labor market. This collaborative discussion will focus on the reasons why employees are leaving, how to minimize resignations and turnovers, and best practices to improve retention of employees.

HOME SWEET HOME: MANAGING ADA REQUESTS IN A REMOTE OR HYBRID WORK ENVIRONMENT

Remote work arrangements enabled the survival of many organizations during the pandemic. But could the decision to send workers home obligate employers to provide similar accommodations for employees with disabilities in the future? During a recent seminar, the EEOC implied that employers need not grant requests for work-from-home accommodations after the COVID-19 crisis has ended if they are excusing workers from one or more essential functions, but what are those essential functions? This session will discuss employee requests for hybrid work or work-from-home and discuss different approaches to satisfy possible ADA challenges.

NON-COMPETE AGREEMENTS: FACT OR FICTION

Non-compete clauses are a matter of both federal and state law. Federal courts typically apply a "rule of reason" approach in assessing non-compete clauses in employment agreements, determining their legitimacy based on their overall impacts on competition. On the other hand, state law largely drives enforcement of non-competes, ranging from states where non-compete clauses are enforceable (e.g., Florida and Texas) to states where such clauses are unenforceable (e.g., California), with many states having various restrictions and levels of enforceability in between. Recently, President Biden signed an executive order on non-competes. This facilitated discussion will address the current interest in non-compete clauses, the trends, and the future of the agreement.

HIRING STRATEGIES IN A TIGHT LABOR MARKET AND IMPROVING DEI

Currently, employee turnover remains historically high as more than 4 million people quit their jobs. Compounding the problem is that the number of job openings last fall was more than 11 million. These numbers demonstrate that employees continue to have significant advantage to leverage the tight market for higher pay, better work conditions or other job opportunities elsewhere. As a result, employers find it extremely difficult to fill job openings. This session will discuss the tight labor market and provide hiring suggestions and ways to increase workplace diversity and a more inclusive work environment. Come with your questions and best practices, and be ready to learn from each other as you get new ideas and strategies to implement in your workplace.

WHY USLAW NETWORK

In today's global marketplace, legal needs often transcend geographic boundaries. To operate globally, you need to have an edge locally. This requires an in-depth understanding of local cultures, economies, laws, governments, trends and business climates. This kind of edge not only enhances your competitive position, but also allows you to anticipate — and even influence — changes in the market, and to react quickly and effectively.

Clients with these types of complex needs turn to USLAW NETWORK (USLAW) member firms to represent them in the courtroom and the boardroom, next door and across the United States and around the world. USLAW member firms are some of the most highly respected law firms in their respective jurisdictions. Each member firm is admitted only after substantial due diligence and is rigorously reviewed to ensure they meet USLAW quality service standards.

The collective expertise of USLAW member firms is impressive. National and international law firms, while they may have scores of offices, do not have access to the depth of the legal resources available through USLAW. As well, our lawyers know and respect each other. Through friendship, networking and resource-sharing, USLAW attorneys develop the type of cooperation and client-focused service that corporations demand of their legal counsel.

LABORAND EMPLOYMENT LAW FIRMS?

With highly qualified and experienced employment and labor attorneys located throughout the country, group members are uniquely positioned to offer cutting edge legal services in a cost-effective manner. The Group's nationwide presence and expertise permits us to respond expeditiously to clients wherever and whenever our members are needed. Through the group's extensive collective experience representing both private and public sector clients, member attorneys have gained a deep understanding of our clients' needs and goals in dealing with employees and labor unions.

While our members must conform to the highest standards of excellence and integrity, it is our personalized attention to our clients that sets USLAW apart. The group's wealth of experience in a wide variety of industries and with employers ranging from small "mom and pops" to Fortune 100 companies allows them to better counsel clients on the day-to-day problems they encounter.

By working together, USLAW firms' employment and labor law practice groups offer our clients all of the benefits of national representation without compromising our commitment to providing outstanding and timely service. Through our outreach efforts, including national seminars and local training opportunities, the members aim not only to offer premiere, cost-effective, legal representation, but also to continue to develop and strengthen relationships with our industry partners, allowing our members to better serve the business community.

Group members believe their clients are best served through preventive measures such as careful policy drafting and effective training. To that end, we are often on-site with employers, identifying ways to strengthen personnel policies and providing innovative solutions to workplace challenges. In addition, we provide training to supervisors and managers on a wide array of topics, including: sexual harassment, unlawful discrimination, workplace investigations, and violence in the workplace.

Even with the most careful planning, employers cannot entirely avoid litigation. Group members have extensive experience in all phases of litigation – from administrative agency proceedings to litigation in state and federal courts throughout the country. Member attorneys are keenly aware of the potential pitfalls in administrative investigations and regularly assist employers in responding to Department of Labor, EEOC, NLRB, OFCCP and OSHA audits and investigations at the federal, state and local levels. Should litigation arise, USLAW clients are well-positioned by having all of the benefits of a large national practice with attorneys familiar with the local rules, judges and trends for nearly every jurisdiction.
